

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Alan CLUCAS

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 1977 BA, Physiological Sciences, Oxford University, UK
- 1980 BM,BCh, Oxford University, UK
- 1983 MA, Physiological Sciences, Oxford University, UK
- 1983 MRCP(UK), Royal College of Physicians of London, UK
- 1985 Diploma of Pharmaceutical Medicine, Welsh School of Pharmacy, UK
- 1989 MFPM, Faculty of Pharmaceutical Medicine, RCP London, UK

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

SECONDARY

(1967-1974)

- Manchester Grammar School, UK
- Foundation Scholar
- 7 'O' Levels, 3 'A' Levels (all Grade A), 2 'S' Levels
- Senior Prefect, Member Christian Music Group, Volleyball, Basketball and Athletics Teams.

TERTIARY

(1974-1980)

- Balliol College, Oxford University, UK
- Mowat Jones Scholar
- BA Physiological Sciences 1977 (Options in Pharmacology, Cell and Molecular Biology), converted in 1983 to MA
- Community Medicine Prize 1979
- BM BCh 1980 (Medical Qualification).
- Captain College Athletics Team (University Champions 1976-1978)
- University Athletics 'Blue' 1977 & 1978.

INTERNAL MEDICINE

(1980-1983)

- Pre-registration House-Officer in Jamaica and UK (Cardiology)
- Senior House Officer in Sheffield, UK (Renal Unit and Infectious Diseases)
- Registrar in General Medicine, Truro, UK (Rotation through Cardiology, Endocrinology, Gastroenterology, Haematology and Respiratory Medicine)
- MRCP (Royal College of Physicians, London, UK)

PHARMACEUTICAL

MEDICINE

(1983-present)

- Co-investigator for Sulbactam Research Project in Truro
- Pharmaceutical Industry Experience
 - Postgraduate Diploma in Pharmaceutical Medicine (Dip Pharm Med) 1985
- Member of Faculty of Pharmaceutical Medicine (RCP, UK) 1989
- Numerous Technical and Management training courses

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 1994 - Present: GALDERMA R&D, Sophia Antipolis, France
- Director of Clinical Research, responsible for Phase I/II trials of dermatology products on an international level, plus management/principal investigator of in-house clinical pharmacology unit and pharmacovigilance.
 - Special interests: - clinical pharmacology of retinoid receptor modulators, including study of adverse reactions- proof of principle studies of NCEs in man
- 1992 - 1994: RHONE-POULENC RORER, Vitry, France
- Worldwide Project Leader, responsible for global management of four R&D projects in Hormone Replacement Therapy and Rheumatology.
- 1989 - 1992: MAY & BAKER/RHONE-POULENC RORER, Melbourne, Australia
- Medical Director for Australia/New Zealand, responsible for clinical trials, regulatory affairs, medical information/support services
- 1986 - 1989: RHONE-POULENC SANTE, Antony, France
- Clinical Research Physician in Cardiovascular Department with international responsibility for Phase I to III trials in the fields of hyperlipidaemia and thrombosis, also some Phase IV studies with beta-blocker
 - Project Leader for PAF antagonists
- 1983-1986: PFIZER CENTRAL RESEARCH, Sandwich, UK
- Clinical Project Manager, responsible for European Phase I-III development of compounds in fields of gastroenterology (antisecretory, cytoprotective and antispasmodic) and later CNS (anti-depressant)