

測驗試題

Comprehension

1. Cross out which of the following is NOT a body part : chest, liver, gall bladder, intravenous catheter.
2. Cross out which of the following is NOT a body part : intestines, bowel, analgesic, stomach.
3. Cross out which of the following is NOT a body function : diarrhea, forceps, hyperventilation, menstruation.
4. Cross out which of the following is NOT a body function : sweating, constipation, incontinence, respirator.
5. Cross out which of the following is wrong : a neurologist is a doctor for skin diseases, for eye diseases, for nose diseases, for nervous diseases.
6. Cross out which of the following is wrong : cardiologist is a doctor for skin diseases, for eye diseases, for heart diseases, for nervous diseases.
7. Cross out which of the following is wrong : an ophthalmologist is a doctor for skin diseases, for eye diseases, for nose diseases, for nervous diseases.
8. Cross out which of the following is wrong : an oncologist is a doctor for skin diseases, for cancer, for nose diseases, for nervous diseases.
9. Cross out which of the following is wrong : a gynaecologist is a doctor for cancer, for children, for nose diseases, for nervous diseases.
10. Cross out which of the following is wrong : a paediatrician is a doctor for cancer, for children, for nose diseases, for nervous diseases.
11. Cross out which of the following is wrong : a Christian is a person who may eat meat and believes in Mohammed.
12. Cross out which of the following is wrong : a Muslim is a person who does not eat pork and believes in Lao Tse.
13. Cross out which of the following is wrong : the Jewish faithful may eat meat only if the animal is slaughtered according to a special ritual. This meat is then called a/kosher, b/cashier, c/costly
14. Cross out which of the following is wrong : vital signs are a/breathing, b/pulse, c/heartbeat, d/eating, e/drinking

15. Cross out which of the following is wrong : If the family wants to know what is the Intensive Care Unit you will explain that it a/the department of administration, b/a place where the patient is continuously and closely monitored using special equipment, a special place for resting.
16. If an American patient asks : “I want to go to the bathroom”, he want to a/take a bath, b/go to the toilet, c/go shopping.
17. If an English patient asks : “I want to go to the bathroom”, he want to a/take a bath, b/go to the toilet, c/go shopping.
18. If the doctor tells the patient : “I want to make an electrocardiogram” he is going to take and X-ray of the heart, check the electrical activity of the heart, place a catheter in the heart.
19. An antibiotic is a medicine against a/pain, b/bacteria, c/sleeplessness
20. An antispasmodic is a medicine against a/cramps, b/bacteria, c/worms
21. An antitussive is a medicine against a/fever, b/cough, c/worms
22. A laxative is a medicine to promote : a/ passing stools, b/sleeping, c/weight loss
23. A suppository is a medicine given : a/oral, b/by injection, c/via the rectum, d/through the skin
24. The doctor says the patient has an aneurysm that means the patient has a problem : a/ of the heart, b/ of a blood vessel, c/ with sleeping
25. Before an operation the doctor is talking with the patient about anesthesia, they are talking about : a/ sleep problems, b/ keeping the patient form feeling pain, c/ eating problems

Pronunciation

Clear
 Fair
 Understandable
 Unintelligible

Speaking Fluency

Native
 Satisfactory
 Hesitant/Timid
 Unsatisfactory