

Health and nursing leadership in Taiwan, Republic of China.

張文英

Yin;T. J.C.;Tsai;J-C. & Chang;W-Y.

摘要

Abstract

The goal of International Perspectives is to share the views of nurse leaders, from countries other than the United States, on global healthcare issues. The focus is on identifying healthcare management problems and their implications, research priorities, policy development, and ethical-moral dilemmas faced by nurse administrators. You are encouraged to send the names and addresses of international nurse leaders who might be interested in participating, as well as your ideas for format and content of the department.